

A photograph of a large HVAC system with numerous silver insulated pipes and metal ductwork. The pipes are arranged in a complex network, and the background shows more industrial equipment and a building.

Hiring HVAC Technician

Established in 1997, Four Season Air Inc. is a regional servicing organization providing installation, maintenance, and repair of heating, ventilation, air conditioning, and indoor air quality systems, for large commercial buildings.

Specific Responsibilities:

- Installation, maintenance, and repair of refrigeration and air conditioning systems
- Insure the efficient use of materials and maintain adequate stock of necessary equipment
- Keep company vehicle and equipment properly serviced, clean, and in good working order and condition
- Complete daily route sheets, and weekly reports as required
- Perform and learn other duties as needed which may include cross-training in related positions

Job Requirements:

- New HVAC graduates or 2 months from graduation
- Trained HVAC & Refrigeration knowledge
- CFC Certification (prefer)
- Valid State Driver's License & clean driving record
- Able to lift up to 50-100lbs
- Excellent communication skills
- Professional appearance and personality
- Willing to learn new advance skillset: controlling system and HVAC management system.

Call us (714) 893-4177 for a chat session

office@4seasonair.com

8585 Katella Ave. Stanton, CA